ONE THING

Make Psalm 139:23-24 a daily prayer –
Search me, God, and know my heart; test me and know my anxious thoughts.
See if there is any offensive (wicked) way in me,
and lead me in the way everlasting.

At Home Study Guide

For the week of January 20, 2019

We live in this world "waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ" (Titus 2:13). God teaches us about the end of time in the Bible, and instructs how to live as we wait. We hope this series will help you understand our future better, but also help you to live better in the present.

present.
1. The end will not be easy, as this passage and others indicate. How does that realization challenge you as you think about the future?
2. These verses speak of the danger of losing your faith and growing cold in your love for God and others. How can we as a church family strengthen ourselves now to avoid that danger?
3. Matthew 24:14 is a great challenge for believers. Gospel proclamation to the whole world will precede the end. In what ways does that challenge you in your witness to others?
