For the week of February 10, 2019

We live in this world “waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ” (Titus 2:13). God teaches us about the end of time in the Bible, and instructs how to live as we wait. We hope this series will help you understand our future better, but also help you to live better in the present.

1. Many of us struggle with the reality of a future judgment, where we will all be judged for our actions. Why do people struggle with this concept?

2. Christians are justified before God by faith, not by our works or actions. At the judgment the Christian will be saved by trusting in what Christ has done for us. Why, then, is there a future judgment for our actions? Why are we held accountable for what we do as Christians?

3. Is the idea of future rewards encouraging to you? What is the Christian’s motivation for doing good?
