What are you afraid of? The Bible tells us when God is our light and our salvation, there is nothing to fear (Psalm 27:1). How can God and His Word give us wisdom and direction to handle the inward fears that can shape us? We encourage you to use these questions to help you discuss with others what you learned from the message today.

1. Do you think we can disappoint God? Take 2 minutes to talk about your answer to this question.

2. Ps. 139:1-18 tells us God is all-knowing (1-6), always present (7-12), and in control of all things (13-18). God may not approve of everything we do, but is he ever surprised by what we do? How does that affect whether we can disappoint God?

3. Jesus is gentle and lowly in heart (Matt. 11:29). That's how he describes himself. What does that tell you about the heart of God? About whether he gets frustrated with you and me?
