Romans 12:1-2

Romans 12 is Paul's challenge to live out the theology he writes about in Romans 1-11. As we tackle this chapter over eight weeks, remember that the ability to live out the Christian life comes from what God has done in us, as Paul explains in chapters 1-11.

1. Pastor Kent Hughes describes these two verses as the elements or parts of commitment. We find the Basis of Commitment in 12:1a: the mercies of God. What are some of the mercies of God Paul describes in chapters 1-11?

2. Next we find the Character of Commitment in 12:1b. What does it mean to present your body as a reasonable, total, logical, living sacrifice?

3. Third, Paul describes the Demands of Commitment (12:2a), in which Paul gives two commands: do not conform, be transformed. How are you allowing the Holy Spirit to transform you?

4. Last, we find the Effects of Commitment (12:2b). As you follow God more closely, how are you able to discern his will better?

ONE THING

Dear Lord, today. . . I surrender my life.
I surrender my mind. I surrender my will.
