2 Samuel 11

During June and July we will consider the life of David. He was a man who lived his life on mission: loving God, loving others, and serving the world. Consider how he points us to Jesus, through whom we can live out the same mission.

Look back at the previous chapters to see what David had accomplished for context to this chapter. Why was David in Jerusalem, rather than at war with his men?

How did David make himself vulnerable to sin?

Did David believe that he could get away with one sin after another?

How is this passage a warning to you to not treat sin lightly and make yourself vulnerable to sin?
