Romans 12:17-21

Romans 12 is Paul's challenge to live out the theology he writes about in Romans 1-11. As we tackle this chapter over eight weeks, remember that the ability to live out the Christian life comes from what God has done in us, as Paul explains in chapters 1-11.

1. As Christians, we are called to a different type of response when treated badly by others. Read 1 Samuel 24 and consider how David responds to Saul, who is trying to kill David.

2. Who is responsible for executing judgment in this world, according to verse 19, and how does this verse echo what Jesus said in Matthew 5:39?

3. What should our response be when evil is done to us? In what situation or event can you apply this teaching this week?

ONE THING

Respond to evil with kindness and love.
