

Listening and Doing
James 1:19-27

1. Be _____ – vv. 19-21

2. Be _____ – vv. 22-25

3. Be _____ – vv. 26-27

To Go

1. When having a conversation this week, only speak if you are asked. Just listen.
2. Think of at least one area where you know what the scripture teaches, but you are choosing to live inconsistent with the Word. Ask God for forgiveness and strength to change.
3. Make it a point to reach out to a widow or someone God brings to mind who needs to know they are loved, cared about, and valued.
4. Make a conscious effort this week to be aware of what comes out of your mouth. Is it honoring and glorifying to God?

James 1:19-27

This fall we will consider the book of James and its application to us today. As you study the passage, look beyond your notes to glean more truth from this passage by using these questions, so that you know God better!

Context: How does this part of chapter 1 connect with the previous section?

Observation: What is the author's main point in this section? How does he support that point?

Meaning: How does God's Word influence and change how we act and live, according to these verses?

Application: Are you a good listener? Do you consistently do what God instructs you to do in his Word? How do you need to grow in this area?
